Voters get first hand look at candidates

Five candidates vying for the first opportunity to represent the newly formed Lakeland federal riding presented their views to Elk Point area residents Friday night at a forum hosted by the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce. Elk Point Pioneer Circle provided the use of their Recreation Centre for the event, which was presided over by moderator Sid Holthe and timer Dave Yake.

The forum started with prepared speeches by each of the candidates, followed by an hour-long question period and a final brief summation by each candidate.

Liberal candidate Hansa Thaleshvar has lived in the riding for 26 years, serving on the school board, as a town councillor and as mayor of Cold Lake for four years. "I am running because I have an interest in politics and debating, I like learning about the issues faced by communities and I do believe in the value of balancing the fiscal house with human needs." Ms Thaleshvar says the Liberals "have restored confidence in politicians and respect in government and the democratic system." Appointment of an ethics commissioner and legislation to ensure the work of paid lobbyists is open to public scrutiny have helped in this regard, as have efforts to get their fiscal house in order. "Next year we are expecting that the deficit will be the lowest in any of the G7 countries. We have the lowest interest rates in 35 years, and there has been a 22% cut in government spending, and no increase in personal taxes in for years, or in taxes of any kind in two years.

The future is bright, if we concentrate on staying on track and budget control."

Independent candidate Valerie Morrow was born and raised on a farm south of St. Paul, and as a young widow, attended business college and university, then taught school for ten years. She has travelled around the world, owned a considerable amount of rental accommodation and has written five books. Her experiences range from working as a cook in the oil patch to wrangling with the legal profession, and she feels she would be able to advise rural constituents on such matters as surface rights. Ms Morrow is not happy with the justice system as it is and wants to see it replaced with an American justice system. She feels many matters go to court "just to make money for the lawyers."

A key issue in Ms Morrow's platform is her strong belief that northern Canada should join with the United States. She feels that the west has closer ties with the US than with Canada's eastern provinces, and "the border should go down. That would stop all this malarkey [involved with] going from one country to another."

"I won't get walked over on any issue," Morrow concluded

New Democratic Party candidate John Williams wants an end to the "class war" which he feels has dominated the last 20 years, "hitting us with interest rates and downsizing. A kid born in 1980 and finishing high school now won't remember the booms or happy times, like we had in the 1950s, '60s and '70s. Kids today have had hard times for 17 years. Interest rates went high and people lost their homes, now the rates are at rock bottom and people can't live on their investment interest."

Johnson feels the central banks "have controlled things to zero inflation," but this has brought with it substantial unemployment. "This will bear most on the kids. Twenty five percent of grads will have no jobs, and many others only part time or low paying jobs, and "the welfare top-up comes from our taxes. The economy is

Happy Daze car show tops Chamber agenda

This weekend's Happy Daze and Classic Car Show was a highlight of last week's Elk Point Chamber of Commerce agenda. Business Promotions committee chair Sherry Oszust told the Chamber that plans are shaping up well for the event, which goes Saturday, May 31 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Main Street.

The street will be blocked off from 51 Avenue to just north of Railway Avenue, and will be lined with gleaming antique, collector's and muscle cars. Spectators are invited to vote for their favorites in a variety of categories, and the owners of the winning cars will receive trophies at the end of the day. As well as the car display, there will be a display of radio controlled aircraft, food booths and sidewalk sales to keep the downtown humming.

The Chamber is also working on plans for their Community Prayer Breakfast, which is coming up on Saturday, June 14. Guest speaker will be Dr. Ryan of Lloydminster, and the morning will feature gospel music by the well-known Quist Family, now of Elk Point, who also performed at the Premier's Prayer Breakfast in Edmonton. A full western-style buffet breakfast will be served. Advance tickets will be sold, and will be available May 30 at Hillside Service, Elk Point Insurance and Realty, Kelly's Closet and the Elk Point Review.

Victor Stepa reported on the Interagency Health Committee, which met last week and reviewed their terms of reference. They have set up a nominating committee to establish an executive, and are working on ways to gather information on community health needs. The committee is "coming together slowly," Stepa said.

Let's rodeo!

By Wendy Young
Elk Point Agricultural Society

Rodeo action returns to Elk Point this weekend with the 6th Annual Spring Classic Stampede at the Fairgrounds on the north end of Elk Point. Last year this event brought over 300 contestants and spectators to town.

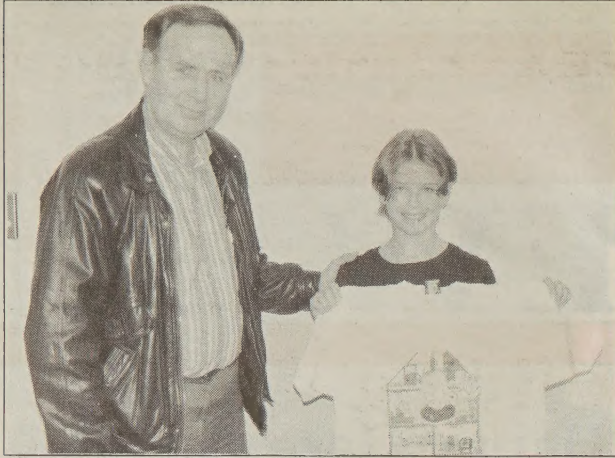

This is a Lakeland Rodeo Association sanctioned event featuring all your favorite rodeo events from bull riding to barrel racing. The Wild Cow Milking event will be held on Sunday and is sure to be very entertaining. Anyone who would like to enter is asked to call Wendy at 724-4227 or Josie at 724-3030. Some of the province's best cowboys and cowgirls are sure to be in town. Top notch stock will be supplied by the Les Trach Rodeo Co. of St. Paul and the always entertaining Bernie Poitras of Islay, Alberta will be the rodeo announcer.

Local competitors to watch for are the Veer family (Peter, Josie, Pamela and Mathew), Brad Poitras and Erica Nielsen. Come on out to the rodeo to cheer them on!

Various downtown businesses will be displaying some beautiful artwork done by our elementary school students. These are entries in the Spring Classic Stampede Coloring Contest and portray favorite rodeo events and characters of the children. Parents, be sure to bring your kids over to enter the calf scramble. The first child who is able to pull off a balloon tied to a calf's tail wins a prize!

Rodeo performances are Saturday and Sunday at 1:00 p.m. both days. There will be a rodeo dance on Saturday evening at 9:00 p.m. in the Fairgrounds Indoor Arena.

We hope to see you there!

Golden rules for living

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

It is now the last week of May. My thoughts go out to the farmers. Spring work for some is done, while for others, work on the land is still in progress. Oh, the faith and courage of a farmer! My wishes for a good season go out to all of you.

When I found this poem by an unknown author, I thought of the life of a farmer. It seems to be that from the life on the farm, a family believes and practices basic golden rules for living. We can learn from our farming friends.

I hope you all will agree with me that the following poem makes sense. Wouldn't it be easier to live in our world, if we all practiced what the following poem explains.

If you open it, close it.

If you turn it on, turn it off.

If you unlock it, lock it up.

If you break it, admit it.

If you can't fix it, call in someone who can.

If you borrow it, return it.

If you value it, take care of it.

If you make a mess, clean it up.

If you move it, put it back.

If it belongs to someone else and you want to use it, get permission.

If you don't know how to operate it, leave it alone.

If it's none of your business, don't ask questions.

If it ain't broke, don't fix it.

If it will brighten someone's day, say it.

If it will tarnish someone's reputation, keep it to yourself.

Elk Point Ag Society Fair news

By Irene Magnusson
Fair Board Reporter

Let it be known that the NEW Agricultural Society Fair list for 1997 is printed and available! Let those who look to the FAIR as one of the district's most interesting — and CHALLENGING — events of the summer, take heed, and pick up your copy as soon as possible. It will give you all the more time to study the rules, look over the lists and set your sights on the items YOU will enter.

Yes, there ARE a number of new items listed; a few different names on the Fair Committee List; perhaps some rules got an update; these you should know about and take into account.

Perhaps the Vegetable Section will influence your garden planting plans (just think: 3 kinds of cucumbers! 3 kinds of onions! 5 numbers for potatoes!)

There are 44 listings under Flowers — just think what a lovely colorful garden you will have, should you decide to enter each of these varieties! And yes, I think it will stop snowing — any day now!

Entirely apart from the offerings of your gardens, fields and kitchens, there are the very many classes of Arts, Crafts and Hobbies; the Knitting, Sewing, Weaving, the Photography and Writing. I could go on — Baking, Fresh Fruit, Canning, House Plants, etc., etc.

What we really want you to do is get a Fair Book, and start studying it. There are many items I have not touched on, but they are in the book!

And don't forget: the Fair will be held August 15 and 16, 1997, in the A. G. Ross Arena!

SADDLE SLICKERS 4-H CLUB POKER RALLY attracted over 70 riders who enjoyed a lengthy trail ride from Moose Mountain to Elk Point. Don White, Lloydminster (left), had the high hand, Ed O'Kane was the oldest participant, and Christopher Proskiw the youngest participant. Stewart Bintz was the trail boss. Kristyn Ballas (not shown) held the low hand. Kim Meheyden of Warburg came the furthest to take part. Joyce Larson was the lucky winner of a saddle draw.

TUU TIMES MADE IT THREE TIMES in as many years, as they won the 11th Annual Jan Frisby Memorial Slowopitch tournament, defeating Hocus Pocus. Third place in the "A" event went to the Classics. Jeannette and Lyle Frisby present the trophies on behalf of the Frisby family.

GOODFISH HILL PEOPLE defeated Fishing Lake Rebels in the "B" final. Third place went to the Terminators.

"C" EVENT winners were the hometown Gators, who beat out the Nahawkahides. Fifteen teams took part in the tournament.

Frog Lake School holds 1997 Prom and Grad

By Ruth Purdy
Frog Lake School

Nine Grade 12 graduands and ten Grade 9 promees celebrated their academic achievements at the Frog Lake School on Friday, May 16, with the theme "Past, Present, Future."

Grade 12 graduands being honored were Lana Abraham, Adrian Cross, Clifton Cross, Jacob Faithful, Terry Faithful, Peter Quinney, Terry Quinney, Sara Singer and Jenna Wade.

Grade 9 promees included Chris Alexander, Roberta Faithful, Samantha Faithful, Louise Okanee, Jenny Quinney, Owen Quinney, Penny Quinney, Troy Quinney, Yvonne Quinney and Rocky Wade.

The evening commenced with a welcome by master of ceremonies Jim Purdy, followed by a Grand March as each graduand and promee, accompanied by their escorts, paraded through the beautifully decorated gymnasium, accompanied by the music, "Forever Young." An opening prayer was given by elder William Singer, followed by a delicious meal served by Donna Quinney and company, and toasts given to the grads, promees, parents, guardians, teachers and staff.

The evening program got underway with principal Laverne Wilson's warm and welcoming message. Wilson encouraged the grads and promees to follow three rules of success: "Use good words, get to class on time and get your work done!" Wilson also thanked the parents, students, teaching staff and bus drivers for their support.

Mr. Frank Walker introduced the Grade 9 promees and messages were given by Roberta Faithful and Rocky Wade from the Grade 9 class.

Douglas Lee from the Hi Hi Store at Frog Lake made special presentations to the graduands and promees, including an Academic Award to graduand Sara Singer and Participation Award to graduand Peter Quinney.

Guest speaker Daryll Brereton, a band councillor at Saddle Lake, addressed the graduands, urging them to continue with their studies and post secondary education.

Musical interludes during the evening were provided by "Cloned," a young aspiring rock band featuring Clifton Cross, Terry Dion, Aaron

Tremblay, Blake Quinney and Alex Dion, country and western star Marmie Quinney, and the entertaining duo of Melvin Abraham and Rocky Wade who offered a humorous rendition losing. We're going down in a way that has a serious impact on the future. Kids who don't settle down and hold steady jobs aren't going to be able to contribute when we are ready to retire. We've got to turn things around."

Reform Party candidate Leon Benoit has a strong rural background, a Bachelor of Agriculture degree and experience as a farmer, farm economist and agribusiness consultant. He entered politics in 1988 after a new political party formed by Preston Manning "matched the vision I had for this country." In 1992, Benoit won the Reform nomination, and was elected in 1993 as Member of Parliament for the Vegreville riding.

Benoit was the party's Agriculture Critic, giving "substantial input" on grain transportation, the wheat board and endangered species legislation. He was on the Finance Committee, and "made sure what the finance minister said was true or not." As Interprovincial Trade Critic, he found "many barriers in place," which result in companies moving to the US to obtain a freer access to Canadian markets. Employment, security in home and community, inability to raise children "the way we want to," health care, pensions and the future of the country itself are issues heard across the country by Reform MPs. Reform's "Fresh Start" platform offers a smaller government, lower taxes resulting in job creation, victims' rights and a rebalanced justice system, Benoit said.

Progressive Conservative Les Parsons studied physical education, was a wilderness outfitter and is currently an instructor at Lakeland College in Vermilion. "I love my job but duty calls. I am very concerned about the future of Canada. I Vote June 2 for Les Parsons and the new PC platform that addresses the key concerns of you, the people of the Lakeland Riding.

Balancing the Budget by the Year 2000

We must ensure Canadians enter the 21st Century with a balanced budget. The PC Party has identified $12 billion that could be trimmed from the budgets of current federal government programs without affecting the services we value most. These spending reductions, phased in over three years, will make it possible to support our tax cuts and increased Health Care and Education funding while still meeting our deficit elimination and debt repayment targets.

Tax Relief and Employment

A Jean Charest government will use immediate tax reforms to restore consumer confidence and create a climate for long term job creation within the private sector:

- By lowering personal income taxes by 10 per cent beginning with our first budget, combined with a reduction in Employment Insurance premiums, Canadians will enjoy a substantial increase in their personal disposable income.
- While international trade has grown rapidly, our trade within Canada has failed to keep pace due to Inter-Provincial Trade Barriers. A Jean Charest government will take direct action to break down Inter-Provincial Trade Barriers. We will establish an Inter-Provincial Trade Commission to regulate and enforce the new rules of trade to ensure our economy grows to its fullest potential.

Health Care and Education

Over the last three years the current government has cut Health Care and Education funding by 40 per cent (more than $6 billion) to every province and territory across the country. This action significantly underestimates the needs of a growing and aging population. A Jean Charest government will:

- Restore the cash portion of federal funding for Health Care and Education to $12.5 billion and ensure future growth funding.
- Replace the Canadian Health and Social Transfer by transferring tax points to the provinces and territories to ensure stability and certainty over Health Care and Education. On an annual basis the transfer of tax points to the provinces and territories will mean that in four years, they will have almost $3 billion a year more to support these essential services.

Les

"My hope for our future is all MPs will work together in a constructive effort to better address the common goals of all Canadians."

don't know how much longer it will be the best country in the world."

Parsons feels "leadership is the issue, who will give you the most real hope." He feels Jean Charest has "a realistic plan. We have a platform driven by the Canadian people."

A key area is the economy. "The government can't create real, long-lasting jobs, but they will reduce taxes and drop employment insurance payments made by employers. A balanced budget is a matter of not spending so much... cutting bureaucratic waste, dissolving non-essential ministries and combining others."

Parsons says the PCs plan to replace some funding transfer payment cuts took from health care. The Canada Pension Plan should be replaced by a self-financing trust, because as things are, Parsons said "I don't see myself collecting in 25 years." He feels that MPs are collecting "ridiculous pensions. The cuts have got to start at the top."

A question period brought forth such topics as the country's unity, negative election advertising, gun control legislation, the national debt, infrastructure programs and accountability. Each candidate then offered a closing statement summarizing their platform.

Frog Lake Prom and Grad

of "Your Cheating Heart" in English and Cree.

Chief George Fryingpan expressed his desire that these graduates will become the future doctors, nurses, dentists, teachers, lawyers and leaders in the Frog Lake community. On behalf of the Chief and Council, Chief Fryingpan presented cheques to the Grade 9 promeers and Class of '97 school jackets to the Grade 12 graduands. Frog Lake Band Councillors presented eagle feathers to each graduand. The eagle feather is one of the highest awards that can be received in the native culture and is of spiritual significance.

Following Marguerite Miller's introduction of the Grade 12 graduands, remarks were made by Terry Faithful, Clifton Cross and Jenna Wade. These students shared their appreciation for Mrs. Miller as being a combination teacher-friend-"Mom" and presented Mrs Miller with the honored eagle feather. The graduands and promeers also presented flowering gloxinias to their parents and family members. On behalf of the Frog Lake Education Board., Mrs Miller presented Terry Faithful and Adrian Cross with Achievement Awards in recognition of their perseverance in continuing their education. Cross was also recognized for his artistic talents in designing the native mural that decorated the gymnasium wall, as well as the evening's program.

Guest speaker Esther Moyah delivered an inspiring message reminding the graduands of the importance of education and shared some of her struggles in obtaining her own education as a law student. She reminded the students that they are lucky to have such an excellent school facility.

Director of Education, Clarence Faithful spoke on behalf of the Frog Lake Education Board and expressed his pride in the accomplishments of the graduands and wished them success in the future.

Letters of congratulation to the graduands on behalf of community members, MLA Paul Langevin and MP Deborah Grey were distributed by Jim Purdy.

The Viola Faithful Memorial Award was presented to Jacob Faithful by his uncle, Samuel Faithful.

An honor song and round dance concluded the evening's ceremonies. Local band

Country Fyre supplied the music for the grad dance that followed.

Cooler weather: time for gardening research or new fiction

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

Just when you think you have seen the last of winter for a while, it comes back and dumps all over you. I thought we were safe when the long weekend passed with dreary, overcast weather but no actual snow. Last Wednesday was an unpleasant reminder that one thing you can count on about Alberta weather is that you can't count on it.

Still, the cooler weather means you still have time to check out some of the library's gardening books for some last-minute research.

If gardening isn't your thing, check these recent arrivals in adult fiction:

Star Wars: Tales of the Bounty Hunters edited by Kevin J. Anderson is a collection of original short stories featuring the bounty hunters Darth Vader called upon to hunt down Han Solo.

The Enterprise is sent to investigate the disappearance of several ships in a mysterious region known as the Great Rift in Intellivore by Diane Duane from Star Trek: The Next Generation.

When H. G. Wells' time machine returns to the end of the twentieth century from the nineteenth, it sets the stage for A Scientific Romance by Ronald Wright, a novel of love, plague and time travel.

And the latest in our juvenile series:

When a Hollywood film director falls victim to blackmail it's up to Nancy to solve the case in Dangerous Loves from the Nancy Drew Files.

The operator of a river rafting outfit is killed by a sniper and Frank and Joe must solve the mystery before they become the next victims in River Rats from the Hardy Boys Casefiles.

Matt's life becomes a nightmare after he sleeps in the family guest room in Don't Go to Sleep from Goosebumps.

Karen participates in Take Our Daughters to Work Day in Karen's Big Job from Baby-Sitters Little Sister.

Kristy interferes with her brother's budding romance in Mind Your Own Business, Kristy! from the Baby-Sitters Club.

Someone is threatening the models participating in a local department store's fashion show in Stacey and the Fashion Victim, a Baby-Sitters Club Mystery.

Deanna Troi is on the verge of flunking out of the academy in Breakaway by Bobbi JG Weiss and David Cook Weiss, a Star Trek, the Next Generation: Starfleet Academy book.

For those of you who come to storytime, bring your bikes, wagons or other wheeled conveyances to the library on Friday, May 30 for a bicycle-themed storytime.

4-H Achievement Day May 30

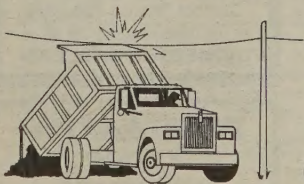

By Lorraine Danyluk
Elk Point 4-H Multi Club

Excitement is running high for our upcoming Achievement Day, May 30 at 4:00 p.m. at the Riding Arena. Our members have 25 finished steers, 11 heifers and 7 cow/calf pairs to show. The steers will be sold on June 2, in St. Paul at 6:30 p.m. We would like to thank the Elk Point community for their tremendous support. Please come and see the members' accomplishments.

On April 6, a "Mini Achievement Day" for the beef project was held in the riding arena. Kevin Wirsta taught the members about grooming and clipping their calves. Tim Havener gave a demonstration on showmanship and Kyle Bintz showed the members how to make rope halters. It was an excellent opportunity for the members to work with their animals. The first time members, especially, gained valuable experience in preparation for Achievement Day.

How to stop accidents from cropping up.

Every year, farmers and ranchers throughout Alberta accidentally damage buried facilities while digging or disturbing the ground causing serious damage, injury and sometimes even death. To reduce the risk of these accidents happening to you, call Alberta One-Call at least two working days before you dig and find out where the hidden hazards are at no cost to you.

Just remember, it's your responsibility to hand expose these facilities before you proceed. When it comes to safety, we're in the right field.
